

Chipz Happen Cinnful Sweet Heat Chips

The first dessert tortilla chip made with an unexpected “kick” at the end. Similar to a bunuelo but made with corn, this gluten-free tortilla chip is like traditional cinnamon and sugar with a little heat of cayenne. Serve it over Vanilla Ice Cream for a Sweet Heat experience or crunch over pancakes, apple pie or any of your favorite desserts for an unforgettable burst of flavor.

Ingredients

Serves 6

- ◆ 12 chocolate wafer cookies or any other thin, sturdy cookies you like
- ◆ 1 pint vanilla ice cream
- ◆ 1.5 oz. bag of Chipz Happen Cinnful Sweet Heat Tortilla Chips
- ◆ Strawberries for garnish

Instructions

1. Remove tortilla chips from the bag and crush.
2. Scoop out a good spoonful or 1/6 of the ice cream on a chocolate wafer. Top with the other wafer pressing down gently so you don't break the cookies.
3. Roll the ice cream sides in the crushed chips to coat. Place in a covered plastic container and freeze until ready to serve.
4. When ready to serve, place ice cream sandwiches on a plate. Garnish each with 2 strawberries. Serve with LOVE and Enjoy!!
